

The tiger is symbolic of the physical world and the dragons signify the mental or spiritual world. Together the symbols represent a harmony between both worlds. The Chinese symbol Yin/Yang (Oom/Yung) stands for balance of life.

One of the many personal achievements of Grandmaster "Iron" Kim is the Kyong Gong Sul Bope (flying side kick). Above is Grandmaster jumping from the top of a building. (The roof is visible in the lower right corner.) In 1970, Grandmaster "Iron" Kim demonstrated Kyong Gong Sul Bope by jumping from the equivalent of an 11-story building. In 1972, Grandmaster "Iron" Kim again demonstrated the Kyong Gong Sul Bope movement by jumping from the equivalent of an 8-story building both times landing without injury onto a sloped surface below.

International Level Training

Speaking of practice, tonight's lesson was truly one of the high lights of my summer. I am awaiting offers from two companies for employment. I would not have received these opportunities had it not been for my training which has allowed me to over come many obstacles along my path these past few months. Training has become like the air I inhale I see I must have it to continue the true right and correct pathway I am today following. The instruction and direction I have gained has the highest price in my life today. I have un-locked a way to understand not only myself but many others as well. I continually feel younger as the months go by as well as a inner peace that I haven't felt in over fourteen years. Thank you for having a school here in Maplewood, Minnesota to help change my life in more positive ways then I could ever write.

Sincerely,

Dan Weiler
