International Level Training

One of the many personal achievements of Grandmaster "Iron" Kim is the Kyong Gong Sul Bope (flying side kick). Above is Grandmaster jumping from the top of a building. (The roof is visible in the lower right corner.) In 1970, Grandmaster "Iron" Kim demonstrated Kyong Gong Sul Bope by jumping from the equivalent of an 11-story building. In 1972, Grandmaster "Iron" Kim again demonstrated the Kyong Gong Sul Bope movement by jumping from the equivalent of an 8-story building both times landing without injury onto a sloped surface below.

“My practice has made me aware that I have only touched the surface of my potential.”

Within three and a half months I have developed more coordination and focus. My body has less discomfort allowing for more freedom of movement. My posture, self-confidence and attitude have also improved.

Friends have noticed a positive change since I have started.
