

The tiger is symbolic of the physical world and the dragons signify the mental or spiritual world. Together the symbols represent a harmony between both worlds. The Chinese symbol Yin/Yang (Oom/Yung) stands for balance of life.

One of the many personal achievements of Grandmaster "Iron" Kim is the Kyong Gong Sul Bope (flying side kick). Above is Grandmaster jumping from the top of a building. (The roof is visible in the lower right corner.) In 1970, Grandmaster "Iron" Kim demonstrated Kyong Gong Sul Bope by jumping from the equivalent of an 11-story building. In 1972, Grandmaster "Iron" Kim again demonstrated the Kyong Gong Sul Bope movement by jumping from the equivalent of an 8-story building both times landing without injury onto a sloped surface below.

I would like to thank you for being able to purchase your Chi Tea. This product has done so much for me besides giving me help with the energy I need. It is so great to be able to walk up a flight of stairs easily and without being totally out of breath when I reach the top. I feel so much better. I do not know how else to explain the feeling except that the body feels in balance again. My memory is improving. My appetite has gone back to normal instead of being constantly hungry. I am actually starting to lose some weight which has been needed. I had weird splotches on my arms which showed up a few years back. No doctor had been able to help me get rid of them. They are almost gone. When I was told that the tea would help more than just energy, I did not expect all of this, but am grateful for problems getting solved.

Again thank you. I would recommend this tea highly to anyone.
